

National Conservation Law Enforcement Leadership Academy

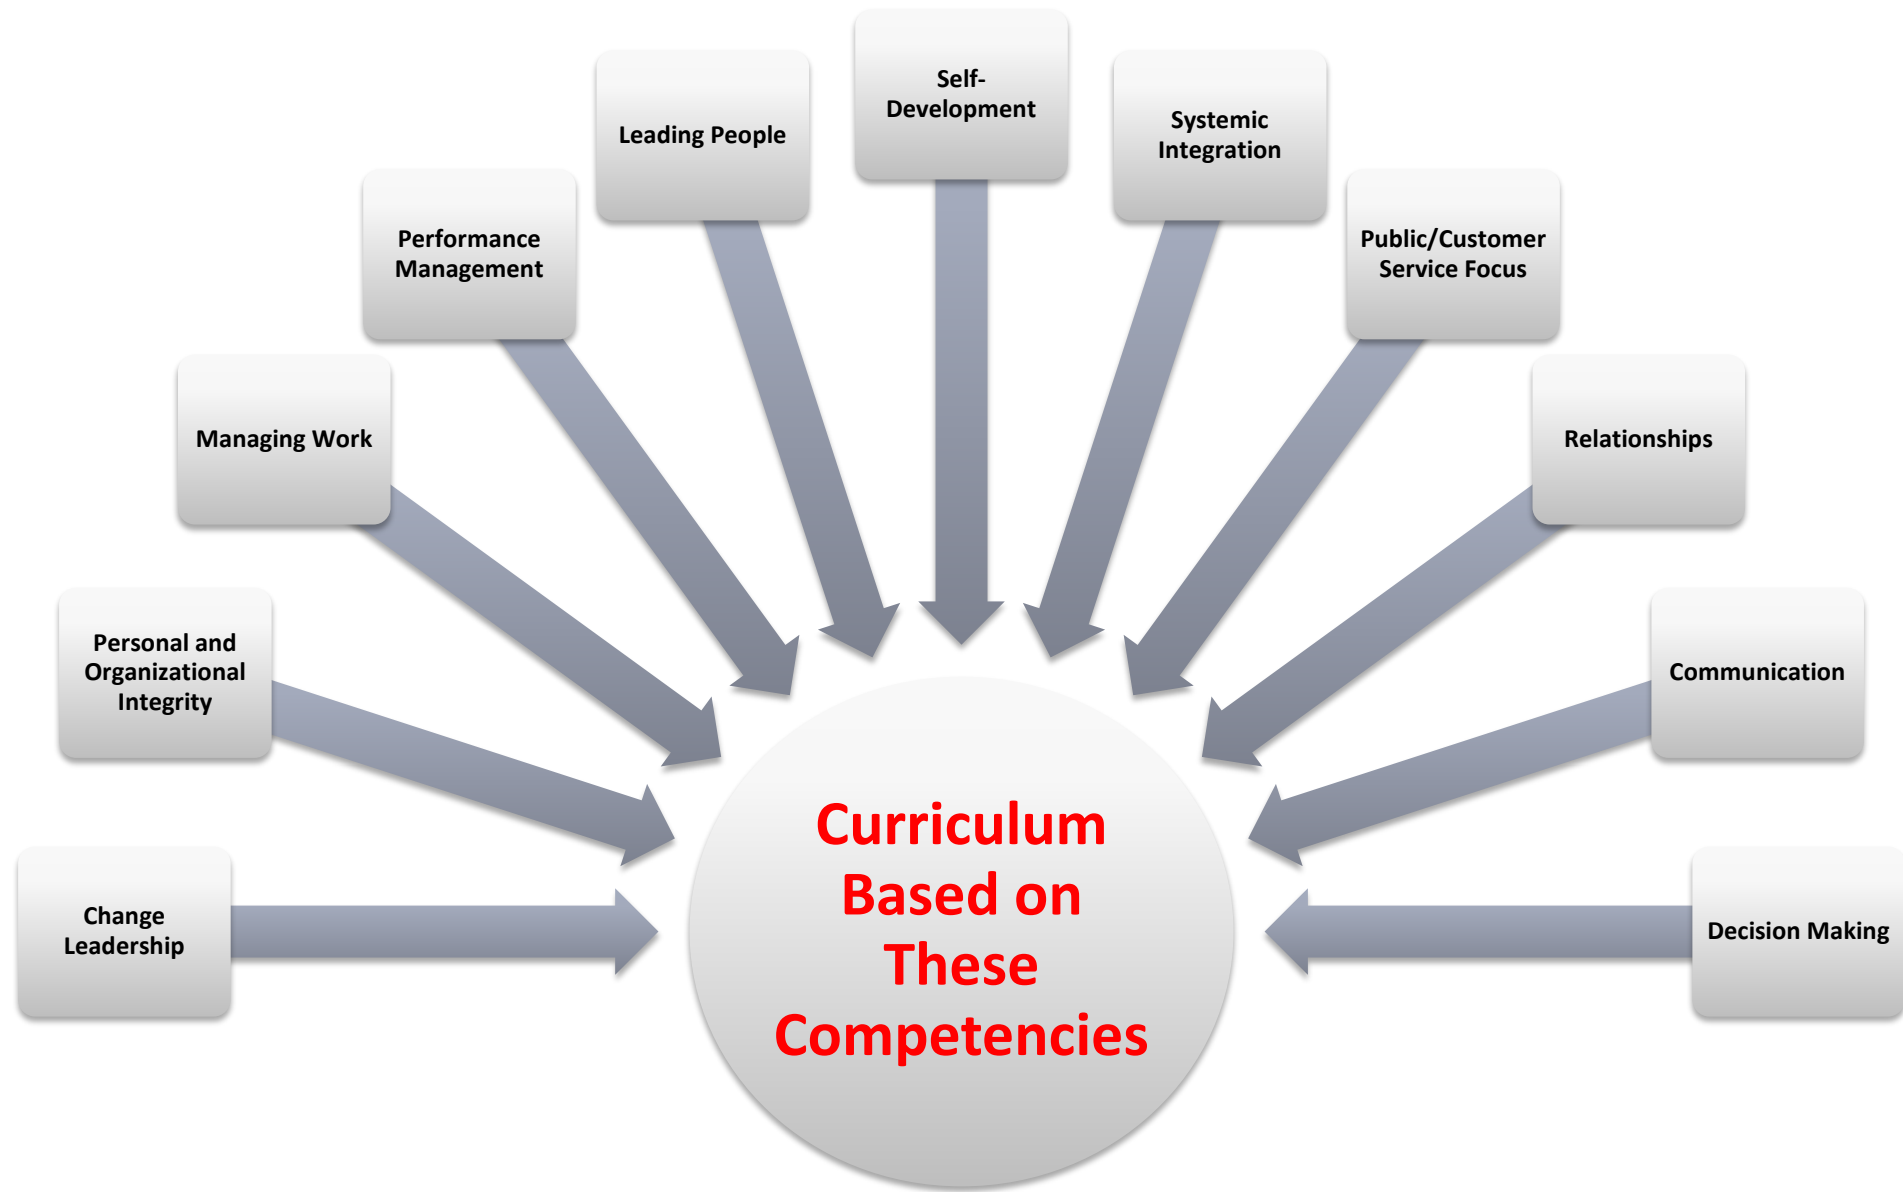

GOAL: Provide the next generation of conservation law enforcement executives the SKA's to be successful in a rapidly changing world.

National Association of Conservation
Law Enforcement Chiefs

National Conservation Law Enforcement Leadership Academy

“The investment of choice for the people we serve, the employer of choice for the people we serve with”

Funding Sources

- Tuition - $2000-$2500
- USFWS Office of Law Enforcement
- NCN grant, if approved
- NACLEC – Coordination costs
- NGO's

Learning Methods

- On-line elements
- Instructor-led instruction
- Scenarios
- Student-led instruction
- Project work

Selection Process/Priorities

1. States nominate participants
2. Establish selection committee (Regional Reps)
3. New Chiefs/Colonels (first year)
4. New Deputy Chiefs/Lt. Colonels
5. Chiefs (1-2 years)
6. Other Chiefs/USFWS SAC/ASAC's
7. Deputy Chiefs/Lt. Colonels (2-3 years)
8. Majors
9. Each Regional Association represented

Potential Timeline

- Finalize curriculum: October 1, 2013
- Match instructors to courses: December 1, 2013
- Develop budget/ set tuition: January 2014
- Select attendees (35): February 2014
- Pre-work: April 2014
- First Session: Two Weeks – NCTC - May 2014
- Project work
- Second Session: One Week – NCTC - October 2014